Peter Told Cornelius About Jesus

ACTS 10

Cornelius loved God and prayed every day. One day when he was praying, an angel from God appeared.

“Cornelius! Your prayers have been heard,” the angel said. “God has seen how you serve and love others. Now send men to Joppa and ask for Peter.” After the angel left, Cornelius sent two servants and a soldier to find Peter.

While they traveled, Peter was praying. It was about noon and he was hungry. God sent a dream to Peter. It was the same dream three times. Peter wondered what the dream meant.

Then, the men Cornelius had sent were standing at the gate. They called for Peter.

God told Peter to go with the men.

The men told Peter about Cornelius. The next day Peter went with the men to Caesarea. When Peter arrived, he saw Cornelius had gathered his family and friends.

When Peter arrived, he said to them, “Now I know the good news of Jesus is for all people. People in every nation need to know about Jesus.”

Peter told Cornelius and his family and friends about Jesus, God’s Son. Peter told them all the good news about Jesus. They believed what Peter said and were baptized.

Parents, in today’s Bible story your child learned that people everywhere need to know about Jesus. Peter thought he should only tell Jews, but God helped him know that all people need to know about Jesus.

LIVE IT OUT

Tell your preschooler that all people need to know about Jesus. Help her think of people she encounters, such as a teacher or a store clerk. Pray with your child that those people will know about Jesus.
